AN ACT to amend Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 3, Title 16, and Title 17, to create an institute for the purpose of studying, revising and advising governmental bodies on various aspects of law.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 16, is amended by adding the following as a new chapter:

Section 16-21-101. There is created the Tennessee Law Advisory Institute to be composed of twenty-five members to be appointed as follows:

- (a) Five (5) members shall be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives;
- (b) Five (5) members shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Senate;
- (c) Five (5) members shall be appointed by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and shall be trial or appellate judges;
- (d) Five (5) members shall be appointed by the Governor; and
- (e) Five (5) members shall be appointed by the President of the Tennessee Bar Association.

Section 16-21-102. The duties of the Tennessee Law Advisory Institute shall be to:

(a) Evaluate such proposed legislation as is referred to it pursuant to the rule of either house of the General Assembly;

(b) Study and advise the general assembly on such areas of law as it is requested to do so by resolution of the General Assembly;

(c) Recommend changes in the law to the General Assembly that the members of the Institute believe are necessary to conform Tennessee law to pertinent federal and state court decisions; and

(d) Such other duties as may be assigned to the institute from time to time by the Supreme Court or the General Assembly.

SECTION 2. For the purpose of appointing members to the Tennessee Law Advisory Institute, this act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it. For all other purposes, it shall take effect on July 1, 1995, the public welfare requiring it.
